

Dear Michael

May I take this opportunity to thank you for your marvellous contribution towards our production of Oliver!

As musical director your contagious enthusiasm, creativity and flexibility most certainly supported the cast and enabled them to give of their best. Your positivity and encouragement also helped the less confident performers too, which made the production very inclusive.

It was a pleasure to work with you, where you showed your flair as a talented pianist and conducted your band with the utmost professionalism. It was wonderful that you dressed the part too- your waistcoats were spectacular!

With greatest thanks

Kim
